

Episode One-hundred-sixty-seven:

“What are you going to do with him once you have him?” Jasper asked in a teasing voice as his arm wrapped around me. We sat across from them on the other loveseat, close together.

Alice leaned forward and kissed our boyfriend’s neck, her tongue darting out to lick it. His eyes grew a little larger. “You remember that thing I did to you on the plane? That. Lots of that.” Her hand moved over his chest as her mouth pressed against his chin. She was purposefully leaving lipstick prints.

Looking at me with a cocky smile, he lifted his eyebrows for a second before glancing back at my friend. We were about to start a fun, dirty game. “Oh, the amazing blowjob or when you sat on my face? He’d love either.”

I ran my palm over his thigh, letting my nails drag across the fabric. “Or your cock.” I passed him a joint with a smirk.

Taking it, he brushed his knuckles of his other hand under my chin as he leaned in just a little. “Did you enjoy watching that?” He questioned in a sweet voice, closing the distance to kiss my cheek. Nodding, I lit it for him when we pulled apart. He offered it to me before giving me a light peck on the other. He looked over at our man. "I know I can't wait to watch them together."

"And what would you like to watch them do?" I continued, bringing my feet underneath me.

He chuckled, his teeth digging into his bottom lip as he considered all the wild possibilities. "Everything. But I always love it when he eats you." Jasper pushed his hand between my thighs, just to the hem of my short dress. "Tony obviously loves doing it, and it'll be fun to see his skills on someone else."

The duo across from us was only watching, Alice smiling, and Edward staring with his mouth opened. It was going to take him a second to get over the shock of her not only being there but getting straight to the debauchery. She moved her hand over his neck, pulling his gaze towards her. "Oh, do you like eating pussy?" Lightly, she dragged her fingertip over his parted lips. Almost shyly, he nodded. Grinning, she pecked them, the top and the bottom separately. "So do I. Especially Bella's. I guess it's something we have in common."

It was as if the cogs were turning in his head. I could practically see them spin behind his eyes.

He glanced at us for a moment before quickly twisting to capture her mouth. She giggled against it, giving back just as passionately. His arms tangled around her thin waist. He pulled away to catch his breath, panting only a couple of inches from her lips. "I wasn't expecting this," he uttered, pecking at them. "At all." He kissed her again, his hand on her chin to hold her in place. "The other night was the sexiest thing I've ever watched. I can't stop thinking about it. It doesn't even feel real. It was like a dream. I have literally dreamed about it."

I came to sit beside them with the joint. Accepting it from me, she took a hit, then brought it to his lips. He bent forward to take it, holding her gaze as he inhaled. It probably helped to calm his nerves.

"Honestly, I wasn't either," she declared before taking a drag. Blowing it out slowly, she leaned forward to bring it to my mouth next with a flirty smile. "But I couldn't pass up a chance to spend some time with my best friend in paradise." She peered at Jasper next. "They both made convincing arguments, actually."

"It was the private jet that did it," I said with a smirk. "Sydney is going to be so much fun."

Edward's eyes lit up as he realized. "Ah! You're going too! Damn, now I really want to go," he complained, pulling her in closer so he could lavish attention on her neck. She tilted her head back before drawing him up and pressing a kiss on his nose. It left a smudge on the tip. He pouted his bottom lip out. Alice sucked it in between her teeth and tugged on it. "Oh, fuck," he breathed.

A brief, wicked grin crossed her lips. "Well, that's what I'm hoping for, yes," she quipped. Giggling, I took another hit. "I hope you don't mind, but I intend to use all of you for maximum stress relief. I've been pent up for too long."

I cackled. "You're going to get your fill, then just go back home! I see how it is."

She nodded firmly, holding her chin in the air. "Yup!"

"So, almost a solid month of fucking?" Jasper mused as he gazed at us from across the coffee table. She smirked as he pretended to be scandalized. "Using us like whores." He clicked his tongue, shaking his head as he picked up another joint. Lifting his eyes, he held her gaze and winked. "I like it. Sounds fun."

I ran my hand over Alice's thigh as I looked at him. "That's because you're a slut at heart."

"So are you, dove." He blew out the smoke, smirking. "My favorite sort. So is he, just usually an attention whore."

"I'd argue, but I'm an actor," he teased. "I must admit, I thought Bella would be the last woman I would ever have sex with. I've fantasized about this but didn't think it would happen."

She scoffed. "Such typical men."

"Ah, come on," he chuckled. "Knowing that you were together when you were younger made it near impossible not to. And she's used the imagery several times to tease me."

"Have you told him all our sordid tales?" She smirked at me.

I shook my head. "No, actually. I told him about the last night we were together, a little. Not really the details. Just that it happened."

"You weren't ever one to kiss and tell."

"Unless it was to you."

She leaned forward and kissed my mouth lightly. "Not as much this time! You won't talk about this stuff over the phone."

Grinning, I snorted. "I'm usually in public when I have a chance to text you. It feels awkward. I'm always doing something or going somewhere."

Once again, she brought it to his lips. "I've been thinking about this a lot too. Since November. I... I considered doing it then, but I think the relationship was too fresh, and you wouldn't have been ready for it. You were so flustered on Thanksgiving. Then she freaked out when you got sick."

"That day, those conversations with her and you, are what flipped the switch in me, though," he replied, taking it from her grip. Edward licked his lips as he looked at it, then took another. "But you're right. I still would have done it, but I wouldn't have been ready," he laughed the last sentence.

"Are you now?" She inquired with a pout. If she didn't know the answer, she wouldn't have been on his lap.

"Yes," he promised. Once again, he took her mouth. She grinned against it.

"Are you sure you don't want some Chinese first?"

Chuckling, he nodded his head as his cheeks heated. "That's probably a good idea. I've not eaten all day. Been too excited about them getting home. I was planning on taking them to dinner, but this is better. I hope that doesn't mean you're going to get up, though."

"You and your dirty Santa Claus thing," Jasper joked. He slapped his knee and deepened his voice. "Come here, little girl. Tell me what you want."

"Orgasms!" She sang childishly, her arms going around Edward's neck again. She kicked her feet in the air as she did.

Edward pulled me onto his lap as I laughed. My legs were crossed over Alice's. His arms wrapped around both of our waists as he turned to kiss my mouth. Then I heard a camera snap. Jasper was holding up his phone.

"I dare you to post that," I quipped before pressing my lips to his cheek.

He looked me dead in the eye. "Done."

"No!" I gasped, grabbing my cell off the table to see if he actually did it. Sure enough, there was a closeup of us kissing. Alice was in the frame with a giant smile on her face. It was all above the chest, so you couldn't tell we were sitting on his lap. But you could see the red lipstick prints all over his skin. We were wearing the same shade, so it just looked like I had kissed him all over. The caption was '@EddieCullen gets to have fun with all the pretty girls, @BellaSwan @DrMABrandon.' Within the minute it took to bring it up, there were twenty comments. A bunch were only emojis- hearts, kisses, and the like. A lot of them gushed about how cute we were. This included one of his sisters. Others asked who she was. Someone inquired what lipstick brand we were promoting.

I looked up at him. He was grinning evilly. "Try me, dove."

"He's all bluster. He wouldn't do a damn thing, and we both know it," Edward smirked at his best friend. They stared at each other in silence. Quickly, he snapped another picture. Without breaking eye contact, he posted it. It dinged on my screen. This time it was further out. We were all looking at him with the most sarcastic, bemused expressions. It just tagged Eddie and only had a bunch of emoji kisses. He scoffed loudly. It still appeared as if we were purposefully posed and modeling, not making out and flirting.

"Try me, darling," he repeated and blew him a kiss.

"Excuse me," he laughed. "What? You'd rather people think I was fucking around with the two of them instead of you?"

Jasper glanced away, taking a hit. "Maybe. It's viewed as more acceptable for some reason. Two girls and a guy." He took another. "But they won't think that. They'll assume you're being cute with your girlfriend and her best friend."

Pursing his lips, he peeked between us. "Go sit on his lap so I can take a picture."

We nodded at each other before we both hurried to him so fast we tripped over our feet and fell into him. Laughing, he caught us. It made the loveseat tip backward at about half speed, slowly taking us with it. It was the most gentle fall ever.

"Oh, shit!" He laughed as his head slumped back against the pillow. The world was upside down.

Edward hurriedly stood up while filming us. He pulled out his phone as soon as we rose. "Are you okay?"

"I don't know how to get up," Jasper mumbled as he gazed at him. Our feet were all in the air, and Alice and I were laughing uncontrollably. We were the least sober of the bunch, but she did that on purpose. "I don't think this went as planned."

"It's so much better," he chuckled, finally putting his phone down and pulling first my friend to her feet, then me. We pressed our faces into his ironed white shirt as we giggled, getting our balance. Then he offered his hand to our boyfriend. When he tugged him up, it pulled the seat upright. "Try that again a little more carefully."

We sat on his lap, posing this time purposefully. Alice kissed his cheek, leaving a light print on it. Of course, Edward posted the video and the photo. His caption was, "I adore surprises, especially when they're as beautiful and brilliant as @DrMABrandon. I can't wait to have fun with these three amazing people! (BTW, go donate to her remarkable charity. Cultureforall.com)”

“I’m in love with both of your boyfriends,” Alice began dryly when I showed her the screen wordlessly. She shook her head and sighed, putting her hand on her chest. “One of them has a magic dick and the other, a heart of gold. It’s too much.”

“Aw, you think I have a heart of gold?” Jasper asked teasingly, brushing her fingers under her chin. “Thank you, lovey.” I laughed. He winked at our boyfriend.

“Oh, my god. You both do, actually,” she replied with a giggle, pulling him into a kiss. She looked over at Edward, her grin naughty. “So, ready to order?”

I’m surprised we made it until after dinner.

Alice was in overdrive, though. She was flirting and kissing all of us as much as she could, switching sitting between the boys’ laps. Shy, she was not.

She dragged me into our bedroom, stopping beside the bed to kiss me. Her hand gripped my ass through the fabric of my dress roughly. Then suddenly, she shoved me back onto the mattress before crawling over me. I laughed as my hands went to her hips, our kisses intense. Music began to play in the background as my boyfriends moved around us and prepared for our undoubtedly wild evening. I pushed my palms under the cloth, squeezing her soft thighs with my fingers.

Lifting for a moment, she threw off her dress before returning to me. “I want you,” she breathed against my neck before her teeth dragged over my skin. “I want to taste you.”

She slid down and shoved my skirt up so it was over my hips without waiting for a response. Pulling my panties to the side, she started to lick in long strokes. All I could do was watch. She moaned in pleasure at the flavor, dipping further down to push inside of me. I gasped in surprise. She was so quick, everything sudden and ferocious.

Edward crawled beside me and ran his hand over my chin to get my attention. I grinned up at him, turning my gaze to him. “Hi,” he smiled, leaning down to kiss my lips. It was gentle pecks to the top and bottom as I whimpered at her aggressive touch. His palm moved over my breast, plucking my nipple through the silky fabric. “This is the best souvenir anyone has ever brought me,” he teased with a cocky crooked grin.

Alice giggled. “Aw, thank you.” Smirking, he winked at her. She slipped two of her fingers inside of me. My legs drew up at my knees as I moaned, my head falling back against the sheets. “I am going to fuck all of you tonight.”

“Ah, should I break out our strap-on collection?” He asked as he excitedly lifted his eyebrows. She snickered, making him smile. He leaned forward to kiss her while she played with me still. “Mmm, Bella is my favorite flavor to taste on someone else’s lips,” he breathed, licking the corner of his when they pulled back. He brought Alice into a deeper kiss for just a moment before he bent over me to lick my clit.

Jasper moved in beside me on the other side. He was only in his boxer briefs. He had a big smile on his face as he kissed me. Gripping my jaw, he held me as he took my lips. It wasn’t gentle, but breathtaking. His muscular hand traveled over my breast, squeezing Edward’s that was still resting on mine. Alice was stroking his lovely auburn hair with a grin with her other hand.

“So, what’s it like to be the center of attention?” He asked against my mouth, his tongue curling against mine. My lips parted, but nothing came out. His other hand pinned my wrists above my head, making sure I was held in place. There was nowhere else I wanted to be, but my body was moving without my permission.

“I’m going to cum already,” I whined, trembling.

Alice added another finger. “Good. Cum for us, and then it’s Eddie’s turn.”

He chuckled against me, dragging his tongue against my clit. “Oh, do I get to be in the middle?”

“Yeah, I wanna try out this magic dick I keep hearing about.” He snorted, resting his forehead on my hip for a brief moment. “Though I enjoy watching what your tongue can do.”

“Can I do it to you, too?” He purred before pulling on my clit with his lips. I gasped, and I could feel myself drip down my thighs. He moaned in pleasure, sucking on it.

“Mm, please,” she answered seductively. “Do that again.” Instantly, he sucked. She got the exact reaction she wanted, bringing me over until I was spilling on her. Jasper muffled my cries with his kisses, letting me ride out not one but two in quick time.

When she drew her hand away, Edward brought her fingertips to his mouth to suck clean. He sat up on his knees and pulled her onto his lap. Shirtless, he was only in low riding sleep pants. He never broke their kiss as he yanked off her bra. His palm rested on the center of her back, his fingers splayed across her skin.

He quickly moved her, so she was on her back beside me on the bed with him on top of her. It was so slick, one effortless movement. Edward kissed down her bare chest, her mouth hanging open in surprise as her eyes fluttered closed. He wasted no time moving between her legs. He gripped both of her thighs as they wrapped around his head.

“Oh, god,” she whined. Shifting closer to her, I brought her into a kiss. Jasper stood up and moved behind our boyfriend so he could play with him as he pleased her. I was sure it was a splendid view. “You get to do this every night?” She asked breathlessly.

I giggled. “Not every night. Sometimes it’s in the morning or the afternoon.”

Jasper chuckled before leaning down to lick in a very particular spot. It made him groan loudly. “Isn’t he so good with his mouth?” His fist curled around his erection, stroking him in time with his skilled tongue.

Wrapping my hand around her throat, I squeezed until she was panting. Her eyes rolled into the back of her head, only the whites showing. She almost looked possessed. Noiselessly, she shook with her first orgasm.

Edward sat up with his fingers still in her so he could kiss our man. With his back pressed to his chest, they made out with his head turned to the side. I slid my palm between her thighs to play with her clit. She was soaked.

“How do you want him to fuck you?” I breathed in her ear.

“I want to ride him,” she sputtered out. I slipped my fingertips down until I was brushing his hand. Her muscles flexed under this new touch. “Thank you.”

Giggling, I kissed her jaw. “For what?” Bringing them back up, I swirled them faster in a circle. “You can ride my boyfriends whenever you want. All you gotta do is ask.”

She laughed for just a second, rocking against my hand. One of hers went on top of mine, but I didn’t stop. I used all four fingers to rub back and forth before using my entire palm. Whining loudly, her back arched off the bed as her toes dug into the blankets.

“Oh, yes. Good girl,” Edward cooed in a husky voice. It sent an all-over body shiver through her. Heaving, she tried to catch her breath. He pulled out slowly so as not to hurt her and first stroked himself, then brought them to his lips to suck. Jasper grabbed his wrist and drew them to his mouth instead. While holding his gaze, he sucked the two digits almost all the way down his throat. It made his cock jump. Reaching around to stroke him, they kissed- hot, wet, sloppy.

Pecking his cheek, Jasper pressed his nose against it as he played with him. His eyelashes fluttered against his skin. “I missed you, darling.”

“I missed you, too,” he breathed in return. He reached behind him and returned the favor, rubbing it against his ass as he did. Biting his lip, he grinned when it made him softly moan.

He brought his lips to his ear. "I'm glad I get to do this with you."

Alice rolled against me, pressing her body against mine. "You okay?" I whispered in her hair. There were beads of sweat forming at her temples. She nodded quickly. "Having fun?" She did it again, grinning. "Worth it?"

"Yessss," she giggled before pushing herself up so she could crawl over to the boys. Edward beamed as he pulled her to him with a palm on her ass. They made out for a moment while Jasper kissed his neck, jerking him off against her stomach. She joined in, wrapping her fingers around him. I clambered toward them after stripping and leaned forward to kiss our boyfriend, my hand going between Edward's legs.

"Fuck," he panted.

"Like being in the middle?" She asked in a teasing voice.

"Yeah," he chuckled, leaning his head back against Jasper's shoulder. He turned his face towards him so they could kiss again. He stole one from me, too. His hand moved over her ass and between her thighs. "Get a condom."

They were laid out on the bedside table beside a couple of bottles of lube. She hurried to get one while he settled on the bed. Jasper tugged me to him fully for a kiss. Our sweaty skin stuck together, the heat from his mouth only making it hotter. With a smirk, he shoved me onto my back beside our man. Giggling, I moved so my head was closer to his as our boyfriend kissed up my legs. Then he thrust inside of me without warning. I wrapped my thighs around his hips, sighing at the perfect sensation. Edward's lips pressed against my temple, his hand squeezing mine.

When she got back on the bed, she leaned over to kiss him for a minute. Her fingers danced over his tattoo, pecking her way down his stomach. She rolled on the condom before climbing on top of him. It took her a moment to adjust him at her entrance, massaging him against her lips for a second. When she dropped into place, her eyes got wide.

"Holy fuck," she whimpered, her head thrown back.

"Damn, I am all the way in, aren't I?" He mumbled as his palms shifted to her hips. "You okay?" She nodded, but it was shaky. He pushed up underneath her, biting his lip as he did. It was steady and gentle so as not to hurt her. He wanted to test his limits, though.

"Oh," she moaned, her head falling back. "Fuck." Slowly, she bounced on top of him. She put her hands on his. Their fingers tangled together as she pushed his palms against her skin.

With his face buried in my neck, Jasper rocked within me. It was tender. He wasn't rushing to our orgasm. It was bliss in every way. My fingertips tangled into his soft curls.

"My beautiful dove," he breathed against my ear. I pushed my nose against his cheek, kissing his jaw. "I love you."

"I love you, too," I whimpered. His mouth felt so good against mine. I brought my other hand up to Edward's chin, pulling him into a kiss next. He smiled against my lips. I dragged my palm down his chest until it was between her legs. Alice dripped on my fingers as soon as I touched her.

The moans were deliciously loud, mixing with the music to make a new sound. He fucked her from underneath when she couldn't move anymore. Her eyes rolled back into her head the entire time. Their hands stayed twisted together on her waist. Finishing with a roar, he held her down on him as he filled her. Shaking, she collapsed on top of him. His arms instantly coiled around her, kissing the top of her skull.

Jasper drew away from me with a kiss before getting off the mattress to retrieve a condom. Then he pulled her off of our boyfriend and literally threw her onto the bed on her stomach. It was playful, his smirk smug. "My turn," he remarked confidently, his fingers moving between her legs against her clit. She shuddered with his touch, gushing down his hand. He leaned down to lick and tease her.

Then he pushed inside of her. Both of his hands gripped her hips, guiding her back on him. His palm slowly slid down her spine, making it arch in just the right way.

Both of her fists clenched the blankets as she shoved her face into the fabric. "It's so good," she moaned into it. "Fuck." Twisting her face to the side, our gazes met. Her mouth was hanging open a little, her cheeks flushed red.

Rolling to his side, Edward slid his hand between my legs and kissed my shoulder as we both watched. Every part of me was electric and sensitive. Goosebumps rose on my forearm at his touch. I wasn't sure how much more I could take, but as I felt his erection against my ass, I realized the night was just beginning.
